Malibu Market & Design

Lago di Como

The Malibu Lumber Yard is welcoming in its newest edition, Lago di Como. The Italian home goods company opened its first U.S. location right here in Malibu. Known for its use of all organic and natural materials, Lago di Como has been a major success overseas. The brand-new store showcases linens, wool throws, duvets, contemporary artwork and a variety of furniture carved from wood from the Venetian Lagoon.

Santa Barbara Designs

Since 1981, Santa Barbara Designs is proud to remain the home of the original Santa Barbara Umbrella. This spring it is introducing a whole new line of its popular and sophisticated umbrellas, offering a wide selection of choices, ranging from elegant and simple color options to wild and chic ruffled edges. Some styles include tailored braided trims and playful brush fringes to enhance any outdoor setting.

Gloster LA Showroom

The 55-year-old furniture company known for its family-oriented designs is introducing Oyster Reef, Gloster's most recent flagship collection. Made up of sophisticated and classic shapes, the new line includes a modern dining table that plays with the opposites of lines and curves to create a beautiful piece. In addition to Oyster Reef, Gloster is also introducing Pepper Marsh, its latest synthetic woven fiber line, showcasing earth-toned lounge chairs and sofas.

Restoration Hardware

The newly opened RH West Hollywood Gallery on Melrose offers luxury home furnishings, lighting, textiles and much more. Highlights include Timothy Oulton's Cloud Track Arm Sofa Collection. He states, "We wanted to create the most comfortable sofa ever seen - one you climb into for the whole weekend with friends and family. With 100 percent goose feathers in every cushion of the sofa's simple silhouette, you can relax the summer away."
