FRESH ADDITIONS IN TEAK, WICKER AND METAL
MAKE THE MOST OF THE SUMMER SEASON

1. Santa Barbara's Riviera teak umbrella is dressed in a Tango Orange canopy, lined with Sunbrella's Shore Regatta fabric. Through Walters Wicker, D&D, walterswicker.com (T), sbumbrella.com.

2. The juxtaposition of polished stainless and natural teak highlights the shapely legs of the Daybreak dining table by Link. The wood can be ordered in a natural, oiled or weathered teak finish. Through Hines & Co., D&D, hinescompany.com (T), linkoutdoor.com.

3. Scandinavian in design, retro in style, the Hanging Rattan chair from Serena & Lily seats two perfectly. Westport, serenaandlily.com.

4. One Kings Lane has just launched its first outdoor furniture collection. The Frances lounge chair portrays the timeless appeal of wrought iron in a weather-resistant aluminum, highlighted with handpainted gold accents. onekingslane.com.

5. Wide-set arms and extra-deep cushions provide inviting and generous seating in the Filao sofa by Liaigre. The teak frame is available in a natural, oiled or weathered teak finish. NYC, liaigre.com.

6. In weathered or natural teak, the curvaceous shape of Sutherland's Continuous Line chair merges the organic material of teak with the contemporary design of SheltonMindel. D&D, sutherlandfurniture.com (T).

7. Wheel out the hospitality with the Perrow drinks cart from McKinnon and Harris. Crafted in metal with artisan details like raised banding, each piece is routed by hand in the Virginia workshop. NYC, mckinnonharris.com (T).

8. The Sequoia table by Roche Bobois features a laser-cut top, in a lacquered steel finish in black or white. Design by Erwan Péron. NYC, roche-bobois.com.
