TURN AN UNUSED GARAGE INTO A

Guest Retreat

Fresh paint, some wallpaper and bright, happy furniture are all it takes to create a magical home "away" from home. Think beyond the car, lawn mower and dirty sports equipment!

LAYER ON A COLORFUL RUG.

Create the intimacy of a small room by rolling out a rug in a fun print or bright shade (right) on top of a neutral one.

CREATE PRIVACY WITH A RATTAN SCREEN.

Use a folding room divider as a temporary wall. Its natural fibers are an ideal calming backdrop to the wildly bright accents and accessories.

Home Profile

THE OWNER Fine-art photographer and New York Times best-selling author Gray Malin, who lives with his spouse and their dog, Stella. His namesake company's philosophy: "Make every day a getaway."

THE PROPERTY A renovated 1930s bungalow in West Hollywood. The two-car garage in the backyard used to function as a studio for Gray's work but is now an open-concept guest retreat and pool house — a perfect at-home vacation spot.

THE DESIGNER Online interior design service Decorist.

YOU COULD WIN a room makeover and a Gray Malin print! Enter now at goodhousekeeping.com/splashsummer. Details, page 119.

THE FLOOR PLAN

GIVE A DRESSER A FRESH COAT OF GLOSSY PAINT.

Revive a set of drawers with an eye-catching shade. Not only does this piece provide ample bedroom storage, but it also serves as a bar.

GET THIS LOOK: BEACH BALL GLASS PRINT, FROM $249, GRAYMALIN.COM. FOR SIMILAR: GOLD FACETED BARWARE, FROM $20, WORLDMARKET.COM.

THE COLORFUL LIFE OF GRAY

What inspires you?

I try to capture a moment people want to live in, whether it's a beautiful landscape or a scene at a swimming pool. Every series begins with an end goal in mind: your walls.

Your favorite places to travel?

Cape Town, South Africa, for its white-sand beaches and sprawling wine country. Also Lake Michigan, which I think is the most underrated vacation spot in the country!

How do you use your new space?

My spouse and I love to entertain and host out-of-towners. Now we have the room to house multiple friends and offer them a new level of privacy.
