SPRING 2021

THE GOODS

Your source for what's new, novel, and essential

1. Bring nature indoors with this set of twelve (six are shown here) botanical prints, each of which is set in an antiqued 22k gilt frame. They measure 27" wide x 23 1/2" high. From Dennis & Leen, dennisandleen.com

2. The African Safari teak side table from Teak Warehouse is a classic example of furnishings from the continent, with a rounded top and tapered legs. Each one has been artfully carved from a thick teak tree. teakwarehouse.com

3. An English, circa-1810 Georgian-era topaz cross pendant features foil-backed rose gold collet setting. Complementary antique chains are available, too, at Bell and Bird. The item comes in a fitted box. bellandbird.com

4. The iconic Beverly Hills Hotel has always been the ultimate beacon of glamour, welcoming guests with its signature pink, green, and white lobby. Inspired by that very vision is the Beverly Hills Umbrella from Santa Barbara Designs. santabarbaradesigns.com

5. The most fashionable way to sit outdoors is on the new McKinnon and Harris deCamp Lune Curved Settee, a piece that is evocative of a 1930s design. Its round lines and subtle turns radiate glamour and a casual Modernist vibe. mckinnonharris.com

6. Make a bold retro statement with the iconic Fab5 SMEG refrigerator. Blending midcentury cool with modern innovation, this mini fridge is a space-savvy and energy-efficient choice for offices, dorms, home bars and family rooms. smegusa.com

7. Carol Piper Rugs is not just about rugs. This silk shibori haori, from Japan, is part of her inventory. The haori is a traditional Japanese hip- or thigh-length kimono-like jacket, worn or closed via strings laced through the lapels. carolpiperrugs.com

8. This custom-made Bristol linen cabinet, available from J. Tribble Collection, is made of quarter-sawn oak with a rich cherry stain. The piece measures 48" x 15" x 80", and it works in any room of the home. jtribble.com
