THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

GREAT ESCAPES

From Jaipur to Madeira, Lamu to the Bahamas, Yorkshire to Mbour

inspiration

Some of the design effects in this issue, recreated by Gareth Wyn Davies

1 Lie back and think of Jaipur with Piggott's Store's 'Buta Bird' pillowcases (£34 each) from The Mews, which bring to mind those come-to-bed block-print quilts in the city's chic new billet (page 52). Visit themewsfurnishings.com.

2 A must-read whether you're poolside at Villa Palladio (page 54) or wishing you were after reading Mitchell Owens's immersive Aesthete's Library (page 41): Slim Aarons: Style (Abrams, £60).

3 Hurray for Clé! Its bejmat tiles in sea salt and palace red ($1.42 and $1.60 each) allow you to mimic the hand-painted chevrons seen all over the Jaipur hotel (page 54) without need for mile upon mile of masking tape. Visit cletile.com.

4 Also channelling snapper Slim (see above) are Mizar & Alcor, whose stripy robe (£120 approx) is inspired by him and doubtless constitutes camouflage in Villa Palladio's precincts (page 48). Visit mizarandalcor.com.

5 What's hotter than the Indian sun but much kinder to complexions? 1) The spicy-red parasols at hotelier Barbara Miolini's latest venture (page 48). 2) The 'Cabana' ($5,900) by Santa Barbara Designs. Visit santabarbaradesigns.com.

6 Lazy in red: we see ourselves lolling in this Fermob 'Bistro' lounge in capucine from Royal Design (£417), a close colour-match for pieces on that Palladio patio (page 48). Visit royaldesign.co.uk.

7 Can you get any more NYC than the Hotel Chelsea (page 86)? A pressed-tin ceiling? New or vintage, Tin Tiles from Tramps' wares do what they say on... You guessed it. From £19.80 per tile. Visit tinceilington.co.uk.

8 'Room service! Peeled grape required upstairs pronto.' Something surely every spoiled spouse would love: a bell (£35) akin to the one in the hotel suite (page 88). Visit coxandcox.co.uk.

9 ... ditto a Marshall 'Stanmore II' Bluetooth speaker (£250), also visible – and audible – bedside West Side (page 88). Visit johnlewis.com.
