Better Together

Two new collections highlight the power of creative collaboration.

IN SHADY FASHION

In the June 2025 issue of Home + Design, we showcased a concept outdoor umbrella: a Santa Barbara Designs canopy lined with a Trina Turk for Schumacher fabric fanning boldly across its underside. Soon thereafter, the two brands turned the idea into reality, introducing the Trina Turk x Santa Barbara Umbrella Curated Capsule Collection for 2026. Both brands have long sought collaborators tuned to their benchmarks for quality and style. The mingling of Santa Barbara Umbrella's sleek Paseo aluminum frame with fashion-forward designs by Trina Turk for F. Schumacher & Co. feels as natural as a designer umbrella popping open on a sunny day. Turk selected the collection's three fabric designs, pairing them with her favorite Santa Barbara Umbrella colors, trims, and silhouettes to create the shading beauties available at the Trina Turk flagship boutique in Palm Springs. Twenty-eight more patterns are available in custom-designed umbrellas through the Santa Barbara Designs website.
